

Milestone 3

Our database is a MySQL database run through Heroku with 5 tables. The 5 tables are accounts, events, event_guests, groups, and group_members. Their relations are shown below. We used varying data types including varchar, text, int, and tinyint. The sql scripts originally used to set up the database are in the sql file in the Documentation folder.

